

NTC Welcomes New Philosophy Professor, Mr. Francis Fast

February 16, 2021 - Newman Theological College is proud to announce the appointment of Francis Fast as Assistant Professor of Philosophy. A native of Alberta, Mr. Fast is completing his Ph.D. thesis on the political philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas at the Institute of Philosophical Studies at the University of Dallas, where he also completed his MA. He has completed a translation of St. Thomas Aquinas' Commentary on Aristotle's Politics which will be published as part of the Opera Omnia project of the Aquinas Institute. He did his BA in Liberal Arts from the Great Books program at St. Thomas Aquinas College. He has taught in various Great Books programs at the Secondary and Post-Secondary level. At the time of his appointment he serves as Assistant headmaster for the grammar school at Founders Classical Academy of Lewisville. He will officially join the faculty of the College 1 July, 2021. We look forward to welcoming him to the College community.

